

John D. Lee, First Trial

William Carey Opening Statement

RT	RS	BT	PS

75. There is a diagonal line in purple pencil across each page throughout the book that indicates a completed transcription. Rogerson also restarted the book’s pagination with Carey’s speech, in addition to the printed page numbers in the top left-hand corner of the notebook. This transcription continues the preprinted pagination for consistency.

76. An asterisk in Pitman shorthand indicates material continued from another place; here it indicates that this portion of Carey’s speech is out of chronological order in the shorthand.

77. This should be July 23.

78. “CAREY’S OPENING ADDRESS” is apparently in Rogerson’s hand.
